

Al Raja School Financial Aid Fund

Application for Financial Aid

Please complete each section using Black or Blue Ink

Section 1: About the Financial Aid Fund

Al Raja School is committed to serving the community of Bahrain. The Widad Al Freij Financial Aid Fund exists to give support to families who are a part of the Al Raja School community who, due to extenuating financial circumstances, need assistance in meeting their financial obligations to the school. The Financial Aid award may award aid for $\frac{1}{4}$ tuition, $\frac{1}{2}$ tuition, or full tuition, based on the family's need (not including textbooks and other fees). Awards are at the discretion of the Financial Aid Committee, and subject to availability of Financial Aid funds.

Families who wish to apply must meet the following criteria, supported with documents requested:

1. Currently enrolled at Al Raja School
2. Be faced with extenuating financial circumstances, as described in the application.

Students of families who are awarded financial aid must maintain an average of at least 70%.

Families who are interested in receiving financial aid for the current school year should submit this application along with all required documents to Al Raja School by March 31st. Incomplete applications will not be accepted. Any award is for one academic year only. New applications will need to be submitted each year.
